Long Handicap: Jazzy Girl 8 - 1

ATR VERDICT: REGINA NOSTRA was always handily positioned when beating a weak field at Wolverhampton last month and could have more to offer for master handler William Haggas. An opening mark of 68 looks more than fair for this well-bred filly and she can account for Miss Milla B, who put up a career best when third at Chelmsford recently, and Sweet Symphony, who has been running well in recent times and wears a first-time hood.

Top Tip: REGINA NOSTRA (4)

Watch out for: SWEET SYMPHONY (1)
