| TIMEFORM VIEW: UPTOWN FUNK was well held pitched in at the deep end in listed company at this track last month, but had previously made a winning hurdles debut, and in receipt of a handy age allowance on handicap bow, he is a strong contender up in trip (stayer on the level). Buckled improved for a change of tactics over C&D last time and is a definite contender, along with Arthurs Secret. |                                                                                     |          |                                                          |             |                                  |     |
