ATR VERDICT: Simon Crisford has a 14-58 record here since his training career began in 2014 and it is expected that first-time blinkers will sharpen WAZIN up enough to land the spoils for the Newmarket-based handler. A draw in stall one gives him every chance and he can shed the maiden tag. Flora Tristan ran to her mark when second to a potentially nice Hugo Palmer-trained son of Kodiak last time out and should go well, while Madame Ritz and Brockey Rise deserve respect as the only two C&D winners in the field.

Top Tip: WAZIN (4)
