ATR VERDICT: Ripley is the pick of those with experience based on her narrow defeat on debut at Goodwood in August. The daughter of Declaration Of War was then dropped into a Listed race at Newbury and she was not disgraced when finishing just over five lengths behind the high-class Hey Gaman. That said, the preference is for AWARD WINNING, who represents the yard which has won the last two renewals of this race. The daughter of Dubawi cost 720,000gns as a foal and she is a half-sister to the Group 2 winner and Hong Kong Mile second Royal Bench. Feline Groovy is closely related to the former Chesham winner Zaidan and she is another who could go very well on her debut. Blanche fleur had plenty of opportunities as a two-year-old but her pedigree suggests that she should be better this year, while Qazyna and Rococo should only improve from their respective debuts.
