ATR VERDICT: EDGAR ALLAN POE thrives when there is cut in the ground and having knocked on the door on his last two outings of 2017 he can start 2018 with a victory here. Wicker has been in great form on the all-weather this winter and is respected in first-time cheekpieces, while the lightly-raced Loujain is interesting for John Gosden, kept in training as a four-year-old, having not been seen for a year. Prying Pandora, following a wind op, and Mr Tyrrell are others for the shortlist in this trappy affair.

Top Tip: EDGAR ALLAN POE (11)

Watch out for: LOUJAIN (7)
