Long Handicap: Arthur's Reuben 9 - 13

ATR VERDICT: SACKETT was only beaten two lengths when second last time, in an attempt to follow up his Hereford victory, and having made the podium here earlier in the season, the in-form seven-year-old is well worth chancing stepping back up in trip. He has finished second over the distance in the past, in similar conditions at Uttoxeter, and that gives hope of a bold showing here. Lough Salt and Innisfree Lad are consistent and dangerous rivals to watch out for at the head of the handicap, while the frequently placed Scooby and course and distance winner Amberjam are others capable of getting involved.

Top Tip: SACKETT (13)

Watch out for: INNISFREE LAD (2)
