ATR VERDICT: GLORIOUS CHARMER is bred to be an above-average juvenile, being from the family of the Queen Mary winners Romantic Myth and Romantic Liason, and he was not disgraced when finishing third on her debut at Doncaster last month. That form was boosted when the winner won the Lily Agnes at Chester last week and this son of Charm Spirit tops the shortlist. High Horse has a similar profile to the selection and is another who should improve for his first run. Amazing Fox cost 180,000gns as a yearling and his half-sister won in the April of her juvenile season and went on to be a Graded performer in the US.

Top Tip: GLORIOUS CHARMER (2)

Watch out for: HIGH HORSE (4)
