ATR VERDICT: Tolkyn is a well bred filly and should improve for her first racecourse experience at Sandown last month. That said, a chance can be taken with ANBAA, who cost 500,000 euros as a yearling and that is no surprise given her pedigree. The daughter of Lope De Vega is a full-sister to the Group 3 winner Ride Like The Wind as well as the useful handicapper Qassem. Tamreer is another newcomer to consider given that she is out of a Group-placed mare who is from the family of the Group 1 winner Muhtathir.

Top Tip: ANBAA (2)

Watch out for: TOLKYN (9)
