ATR VERDICT: Larchmont Lad was deemed good enough to contest the 2000 Guineas last year and is respected here on just his fourth start for David O'Meara. Stable companion Custom Cut and Original Choice are also noted, likewise Afaak who has a nice line of form behind Lockinge hopeful Addeybb at Newmarket last September. CAPE BYRON is a fascinating contender, though, representing powerful connections and having had a wind operation following his latest Meydan reverse behind Benbatl. He could be anything.

Top Tip: CAPE BYRON (3)
Watch out for: AFAAK (6)
