ATR VERDICT: SHANKLYS DAWN was a winner here over a shorter distance two starts back and with heavy ground potentially against him last time, should appreciate this sound surface steeping up further in trip. Quickasyoucan will be hoping the application of blinkers can return him to his best, while C&D winner Redclue was a beaten favourite at this venue last time but appears well treated on the best of his hurdles accomplishments.

Top Tip: SHANKLYS DAWN (12)

Watch out for: REDCLUE (6)
