ATR VERDICT: DESERT FROST has very few miles on the clock but showed that he can reward Saeed bin Suroor's patience when a close-up second at Newcastle last month. Considering that was his first appearance since he finished last in the King Charles II Stakes on this card 12 months ago, he is entitled to strip much sharper and has a race-fitness edge over Horsted Keynes, who was consistent last year but isn't getting any younger. Mountain Rescue is better than he showed at Yarmouth, while two efforts at Doncaster have suggested that Colonel Frank is on a workable mark.

Top Tip: DESERT FROST (5)

Watch out for: HORSTED KEYNES (1)
