ATR VERDICT: MASTERSON only had one start on the Flat for Gordon Elliott when down the field at the Galway Festival but he improved from that effort when going hurdling which resulted in success at Clonmel last September. His form tailed off after that but he arrives here a fresh horse and may have more to offer. British Art was progressive on the Flat last year and is entitled to improve on recent form having had a couple of runs to blow the cobwebs away. Nanabad and Boom Or Bush were closely matched last time in a Roscommon handicap earlier in the month and complete the shortlist.

Top Tip: MASTERSON (2)

Watch out for: BRITISH ART (7)
