ATR VERDICT: It was only tiredness in the dying strides that saw KAGNEY narrowly denied on his comeback from 508 days off the track at Kilbeggan and, providing the dreaded bounce factor doesn't rear its head, Noel Meade's seven-year-old should be hard to beat with that run under his belt. Master Appeal has plenty of chasing experience to call upon and isn't passed over easily, while Orion D'Aubrelle finished fourth in a competitive Punchestown Festival handicap hurdle over a similar distance when last seen and should go close with a similar performance on his chasing bow.

Top Tip: KAGNEY (4)

Watch out for: ORION D'AUBRELLE (6)
