ATR VERDICT: Those with form do not inspire a lot of confidence and this race can go to one of the many well-bred newcomers in this field. The Craven Breeze-up Sale is often the best sale of its type in Europe and LEGENDS OF WAR clearly impressed during his breeze after connections paid a sale-topping fee of 900,000gns to secure the son of Scat Daddy. He is closely related to plenty of turf winners and the Scat Daddy/Rahy cross has already produced last year's Coventry third Murillo. Charlie Appleby's juveniles always have to be respected and Leading Spirit has a pedigree that suggests that he should be sharp enough for this test. San Donato is another expensive purchase, having cost 500,000gns last year, and his dam was Listed placed as a juvenile. Charm Spirit has made a good start with his first crop of two-year-olds and he is represented by Wiretap, who shares his page with the Cheveley Park winner Vorda.

Top Tip: LEGENDS OF WAR (3)

Watch out for: SAN DONATO (5)
