ATR VERDICT: Aidan O'Brien has a typically strong hand for this and saddles the only two previous Group 1 winners in the field. Clemmie looked to have the world at her feet when landing the Cheveley Park in the manner of a filly who would relish further than that 6f test. She has to be respected, but stablemate HAPPILY has the benefit of a recent run, having finished ahead of Soliloquy when filling third in the 1000 Guineas at Newmarket. A dual Group 1 winner last term, she is likely to improve for that reappearance outing, as so many of O'Brien's horses do. Lightening Quick brushed aside Yulong Gold Fairy when landing a Naas Group 3 and is respected, while Who's Steph is improving quickly and could be a factor if continuing that progression.

Top Tip: HAPPILY (6)

Watch out for: CLEMMIE (4)
