ATR VERDICT: Glencadam Master ran a big race when second in a similar event at Doncaster earlier in the month and has strong claims on that form. However, he has shown his best form with cut in the ground and has it to prove on this forecast quicker surface, unlike MUSHTAQ. The Chelmsford winner was only just touched off for second in a Newmarket handicap on good to firm last month and the lightly-raced Richard Hannon inmate has scope for plenty of progress off the same mark after only four runs. A gelding operation and step up in trip sparked improvement in Mashaheer as he ran out an impressive winner on his seasonal debut over an extended 1m at Nottingham and there could be much more to come from the William Haggas-trained gelding.

Top Tip: MUSHTAQ (2)

Watch out for: MASHAHEER (3)
