ATR VERDICT: One of the battles of the week takes place as the brilliant BATTAASH and reigning champion Lady Aurelia renew their Nunthorpe rivalry. Plenty went wrong for the selection on his seasonal return in the Temple as he wasn't the best way and didn't adopt front-running tactics, as he had done when romping to a four-length victory in the Prix de l'Abbaye last October. Kachy made a beeline for the far side rail and posted a career-best when third behind the selection at Haydock and should inject plenty of pace into the race, as should the aforementioned American raider, who was given a recent pipe-opener at Keeneland. Blue Point could feasibly leave behind a moderate run at Sha Tin last time and makes some appeal on his course form last year, while the likes of Washington Dc and Mabs Cross could be picking up the pieces off a strong gallop and are worthy of consideration for each-way purposes.

Top Tip: BATTAASH (1)

Watch out for: LADY AURELIA (10)
