ATR VERDICT: Willie Mullins has won two of the last three renewals of this and holds a strong hand here saddling five runners. Ryan Moore has partnered both of those winners and has chosen to ride Chelkar here who is interesting on his first start for the Closutton handler following 18 months off the track since winning at Chantilly, with stablemates Meri Devie, Lagostovegas and Stratum all worthy of respect. However the best of the Mullins battalion may be WHISKEY SOUR, who has won both of his last two starts on the level and has been in fine form over hurdles this season, winning a Grade One and placing at the Cheltenham Festival. Christophe Soumillon looks an inspired jockey booking and he could be the one they all have to pass here. Coeur de Lion sneaks in at the foot of the handicap and may prove to be the pick of the opposition having knocked on the door twice this term, with his Chester conqueror Look My Way another who must be considered. White Desert, an impressive winner on the all-weather last time, course winner Sam Missile and Karen McLintock's Chester Cup fourth Dubawi Fifty are others who make appeal at longer odds.

Top Tip: WHISKEY SOUR (1)
Watch out for: CHELKHAR (7)
