ATR VERDICT: Sun Maiden has improved massively from two to three years judged on her Salisbury romp and she deserves a crack at this pot, but it's difficult to get away from WILD ILLUSION, whose runner-up effort in the Investec Oaks is by far the best form on offer. Charlie Appleby's filly had Magic Wand (fourth) and Perfect Clarity (seventh) behind when runner-up in the Epsom Classic and although that was run on soft ground, earlier form on a quicker surface suggest that today's conditions will pose no problems. Magic Wand is likely to improve on that form, while stablemate Athena, who struck the crossbar in Listed company two starts ago, also holds each-way claims.

Top Tip: WILD ILLUSION (1)

Watch out for: MAGIC WAND (6)
