ATR VERDICT: High draws have an excellent record on the Round Course here with every renewal of this contest since 2011 going the way of a horse boasting a double-figure stall. Charlie Appleby saddles two live chances in Cross Counter, who lost his unbeaten record when second in a strong novice contest at Sandown a fortnight ago, and DUBHE, winner of a strong handicap at the same track back in April. That form took a significant boost when Communique, who reopposes, won the London Gold Cup in impressive style and the son of Dubawi has the perfect draw in stall 19 with likely improvement to come at 1m4f. Communique has solid credentials himself on that Newbury success, while others worthy of consideration include his stable companions Baghdad and Making Miracles, who finished first and second in a York handicap last month, and Corgi, who represents a yard which does very well with their handicappers at this meeting.

Top Tip: DUBHE (1)

Watch out for: CROSS COUNTER (2)
