ATR VERDICT: ALPHA CENTAURI was runner-up in the Albany at this meeting 12 months ago and has taken her form to a new level since, winning the Irish 1,000 Guineas last month. Jessica Harrington's charge got on top late on last time and remains open to further improvement over a mile. Billesdon Brook won the English 1000 Guineas from Laurens, form which was boosted by Karl Burke's charge in the Prix de Diane last weekend, and is the one expected to put up most resistance, though unbeaten French filly Teppal also demands the utmost respect. At bigger prices, Anna Nerium is interesting on the back of her Group 3 second at Epsom, when she finished strongly from rear to go down by under a length at the line, albeit she was a well-held seventh in the 1000 Guineas previously.

Top Tip: ALPHA CENTAURI (3)

Watch out for: BILLESDON BROOK (5)
