ATR VERDICT: Harry Angel has a July Cup and Sprint Cup to his name and made a winning reappearance in the Duke Of York, but all four of his defeats have come at this venue. He is top-class but seemingly vulnerable in the closing stages at this expansive track when the closers come flying and, in MERCHANT NAVY, he comes up against an interesting Australian import who could inflict more misery on him in Berkshire. Aidan O'Brien's charge was thought to be in need of the run when easy to back ahead of his stable debut in the Greenlands but swept past stablemate Spirit of Valor to score cosily. Strictly speaking, he has a little to find with Redkirk Warrior, who finished a neck ahead of him in Group 1 company Down Under in March, though the winner made all that day and may potentially be taken out of his comfort zone by Harry Angel. City Light showed a lovely turn of foot when landing a 5f Group 3 at Longchamp last month and could relish this stiffer test, though his effectiveness on fast ground has to be taken on trust. Last year's winner The Tin Man and 2017 Champions Sprint scorer Librisa Breeze are others capable of making their presence felt in a pulsating renewal.

Top Tip: MERCHANT NAVY (7)

Watch out for: HARRY ANGEL (4)
