ATR VERDICT: Dreamfield has been popular in the ante-post market since winning a C&D handicap on his reappearance. He had been talked up as a potential Commonwealth Cup candidate last year before missing the season with injury and may prove well ahead of his mark of 103 in time. With an abundance of pace drawn on the opposite side of the field towards the stands' rail, however, it is worth taking him on with GROWL, who was second over C&D in the 2016 Champions Sprint and appears well treated now 7lb lower than when fourth in last year's Stewards' Cup. He found 5f an inadequate test when second behind Kachy at Chester last time and looks to have strong each-way claims for Richard Fahey, whose hand is strengthened further by Mr Lupton, George Bowen and Brian The Snail. Ultimate Avenue has the ability to figure, as does Silent Echo, who has been in great form at Windsor since chasing home Dreamfield when they clashed here last month.

Top Tip: GROWL (10)
Watch out for: SILENT ECHO (16)
