ATR VERDICT: This is a Listed contest that will probably be stronger than most Group 3 races run this year and the nod goes to SYMBOLIZATION. The son of Cape Cross was last seen finishing fourth over 7f in the Jersey at Royal Ascot last month and that performance suggested that the step up back to a mile would suit. Another positive is the fact that he is proven on fast ground, whereas his main rivals Emaraaty and Gabr were both disappointing at the Royal meeting where they were both encountering good to firm for the first time. Emaraaty has an obvious chance based on his narrow defeat to the Jersey second Society Power at Goodwood but he was well beaten at Ascot. Gabr was less than a length behind Without Parole in the Heron Stakes but that increased to nearly six lengths in the St James's Palace Stakes. Purser is proven on fast ground and has an each-way shout.

Top Tip: SYMBOLIZATION (9)

Watch out for: GABR (4)
