ATR VERDICT: A race that often goes to an above-average winner and MOUNT TABORA can add his name to the roll of honour. The son of Scat Daddy ran green on his debut at the Curragh but, like most from this yard, he could take a big step forward. Dombra and Nayef Road are others who can be expected to go well based on their previous efforts, while there are some extremely well-bred newcomers in the field and arguably the most eye-catching of them is Al Hilalee. The son of Dubawi is the first foal out of 1m2f Group 1 winner Ambivalent and he cost connections 300,000gns as a yearling. William Buick takes the ride on stablemate Art Du Val, while Al Mureib, Kuwait Currency and Machell Place are other debutants who warrant consideration.

Top Tip: MOUNT TABORA (10)

Watch out for: DOMBRA (5)
