ATR VERDICT: The single best piece of form on offer is undoubtedly Could It Be Love's second behind Alpha Centauri in the Irish 1,000 Guineas and she has posted two solid placed efforts at this level since. However, PRETTY BABY is a filly with less miles on the clock, she looks to be improving all the time and could land this for a trainer that boasts an impressive 20% strike-rate with his runners at York over the last five seasons. The form of her latest success at Nottingham is rock solid, with the second (Classical Times), third and fourth all winning since and she looks capable of defying this further rise in grade. The Richard Fahey-trained pair of Maggies Angel and Marie Of Lyon are others to note.

Top Tip: PRETTY BABY (11)
