ATR VERDICT: Adams Park was a little disappointing on his hurdles debut when third at Market Rasen last month but he could feasibly improve for the addition of a first-time visor. Weinberg is another with headgear on for the first time in the shape of cheekpieces having failed to go on from his first attempt over timber when fourth at Aintree. The vote, therefore, goes to PARMENTER as her trainer has a fine record with juveniles and she could improve for the switch to timber.

Top Tip: PARMENTER (7)

Watch out for: ADAMS PARK (1)
