ATR VERDICT: A couple of nice horses have won this in recent years and there is every chance that LITTLE LEGS will develop into a nice sort for Brian Ellison, who has a good record with juvenile runners at this track. The two-year-old finished third in a hot race at Newcastle on debut before shedding the maiden tag at the same venue 18 days ago against an odds-on shot, and could defy a penalty. Deia Glory was deemed good enough to run in the Queen Mary at Ascot last time, while Leebellnsummerbee needs a betting check on debut.

Top Tip: LITTLE LEGS (1)

Watch out for: DEIA GLORY (2)
