ATR VERDICT: Augusta Gold took a step back in the right direction when runner-up at Wexford on her most recent start, with Granny Maura, who reopposes, back in third, and the daughter of Gold Well will most certainly benefit from the extra couple of furlongs on offer. That said, similar comments apply to DALOUGA and she looks likely to take a step forward now making her hurdling debut. She has some decent bumper form in the book, which includes chasing home Grade 1 winner Tower Bridge at Bellewstown last July, and her pedigree suggests stamina will be her forte. The aforementioned Granny Maura and Ballybrowney Walk look best of the remainder.

Top Tip: DALOUGA (4)
