ATR VERDICT: Another wide-open renewal of this valuable contest but at these weights preference is for KINKS. Mick Channon's colt met with lots of trouble in running in the Listed National Stakes at Sandown two starts ago and he was not disgraced in the Norfolk at Royal Ascot last time out. On that occasion he finished one place behind the subsequent July Stakes second Konchek, while the third has won at Listed level since. Based on that evidence, he could take plenty of beating. Tin Hat also ran well at the Royal meeting having finished fifth in the Windsor Castle but he did finish behind the selection on his debut and is 4lb worse off at these weights. Little Kim was only a couple of lengths behind the winner in the Queen Mary and she was then successful in a Group 3 at Deauville. That form gives her a big shout but the daughter of Garswood has to give 10lb to Kinks.

Top Tip: KINKS (16)
Watch out for: TIN HAT (6)
