ATR VERDICT: BLESS HIM has steadily improved with every start in 2018 and the form of his latest run could hardly have worked out any better. On that occasion he finished third to an unexposed three-year-old at York and the second, fourth and fifth all won next time out. Prior to that he had run with promise in the Hunt Cup at the Royal meeting and this former Britannia winner merits the utmost respect under Joao Moreira. The consistent Via Serendipity is an obvious threat following his fourth-placed finish in the International Stakes over 7f here two weeks ago. Poet's Society only found one too good in the Golden Mile last time out but he is not the most reliable of geldings and is unlikely to be progressing given that this is his 55th career start. Medahim got his head in front at Goodwood but a 5lb rise makes life tougher for him today and his Ascot record is a concern.

Top Tip: BLESS HIM (6)

Watch out for: VIA SERENDIPITY (10)
