ATR VERDICT: Owen Burrows' lightly raced Althaaqib got off the mark in taking fashion in a Lingfield maiden last time and has to be respected heading into the handicap ranks in good form. However, James Tate's REAL ESTATE has knocked on the door on both outings since landing his first victory here over seven furlongs, and the extra furlong on the agenda could be just what is required to secure a return to the winner's enclosure now. The consistent Pheidippides can't be ignored, while Dark Alliance has a stellar record here and could be dangerous if getting his own way.

Top Tip: REAL ESTATE (8)

Watch out for: DARK ALLIANCE (2)
