ATR VERDICT: The decision to bring LETHAL PROMISE over in search of Listed honours can pay dividends because Willie McCreery's youngster was only beaten four lengths into fourth in a Curragh Group 3 last time, and the front two have franked the form since. Come On Leicester was ahead of Shumookhi when fifth in the Queen Mary, but their careers have gone in different directions since. Heartwarming is a half-sister to last year's Queen Mary winner Heartache and displayed plenty of the family talent at Sandown, while Scintilating is surely better than she showed in the Princess Margaret.

Top Tip: LETHAL PROMISE (8)
