Up in class and can go on improving. ★★★★★ (Forecast 5.00)                                     |   |         |   |           | Notes:                                  |     |

| Jockey Colours: Royal blue, white capTimeform says: Dual winner in 2017 and added to his tally at Meydan in February. Solid third in the Duke of Edinburgh back from a break at Royal Ascot (1½m, good to firm) and well worth his place in this line-up. ★★☆☆☆ (Forecast 9.00)                          |   |         |   |           | Notes:                                  |     |

| TIMEFORM VIEW: An emphatic winner of what looked a strong Newmarket handicap last time, HAMADA is expected to take this step up in class in his stride. Indeed, with just half-a-dozen runs under his belt he remains with potential and is more than likely a Group horse. Stablemate Walton Street and unexposed 3-y-o Raymond Tusk merit respect but bigger threats may be posed by Dal Harraild and Algometer. |  |       |  |         |                          |                 |
