ATR VERDICT: David Loughnane's gelding LORD MURPHY has gone close the last twice and as he remains on a mark just 3lb higher than when last winning, he should be on the premises once again. Mr Andros was beaten just a neck last time at Wolverhampton and is interesting if the step up to a mile and a return to turf are in his favour. Shifting Star is just 1lb higher than when scoring over course and distance back in May and the track regular is another to note along with Narjes, whose rating continues to slide.

Top Tip: LORD MURPHY (2)
Watch out for: MR ANDROS (4)
