ATR VERDICT: LAH TI DAR put in a stunning performance to win the Listed Galtres Stakes at York by 10 lengths last month and she looks to be right out of the top drawer based on that evidence. The daughter of Dubawi obviously faces a tougher test today but her dam managed to beat the males at the highest level and she can do the same here. Kew Gardens went to the top of the ante-post markets for this race when beating Southern France and Nelson in the Queen's Vase at Royal Ascot. He was subsequently successful in the Group 1 Grand Prix de Paris but he has ground to find with Old Persian, who had previously won the King Edward VII, based on their meeting in the Great Voltigeur at York. Aidan O'Brien's colt is 2lb better off at these weights but that may not be enough to reverse the form. Loxley has progressed throughout 2018 but does have stamina to prove. Dee Ex Bee filled second spot in the Derby back in June and it wouldn't be the biggest surprise to see him pick up another Classic placing.

Top Tip: LAH TI DAR (11)

Watch out for: OLD PERSIAN (5)
