ATR VERDICT: OURAULDMAN was beaten by little under 10 lengths in a maiden hurdle at Tramore last time out but, in the context of this contest, Henry de Bromhead's four-year-old would have to be considered one of the leading contenders. It is possible that first-time cheekpieces could spark some improvement from Holy Motivation, while Churchtown Glen offered more when fifth at Tramore in June and is worth a market check now returning from a small break.

Top Tip: OURAULDMAN (6)

Watch out for: HOLY MOTIVATION (8)
