ATR VERDICT: KALAGIA was a good second at Musselburgh last Saturday, appearing to bounce back to somewhere near her best. If able to replicate that effort just over a week later, Mark Johnston's filly can get herself back to winning ways. Seduce Me has become a frustrating individual despite having dropped down the handicap this season, but a first-time visor could see improvement with conditions to suit. The return to a mile could also see Paramount Love in a better light.

Top Tip: KALAGIA (5)

Watch out for: SEDUCE ME (6)
