ATR VERDICT: MINELLA WARRIOR has only made the track a handful of times since his bumper debut for Kim Bailey at Ascot in December 2016, when behind Western Ryder in a Listed event. That form reads very strongly along with his second to Grade 1 performer Kalashnikov at Wetherby the following March, before making a winning debut over timber at Warwick in May. The son of King's Theatre remains a fairly exciting type and he can account for the useful Gortroe Joe, a winner himself at Warwick on a different card in the same month, and Up The Drive, who makes his debut for Dan Skelton having placed on his sole outing in a point-to-point.

Top Tip: MINELLA WARRIOR (2)
Watch out for: GORTROE JOE (1)
