Notes:

TIMEFORM VIEW: ZESHOV shaped as if still in good form at Doncaster last time and a 5 lb rise for his comfortable Musselburgh success at the start of the month looks manageable. Archie has had a pretty good spell of late and ought to be competitive again, while Beverley Bullet wasn't seen to best effect at Pontefract last week and was runner-up over C&D earlier in the campaign.

Notes:

TIMEFORM VIEW: DETACHMENT turned a slightly stronger handicap than this into a one-sided affair at Pontefract on Thursday and is very much the one to beat under a penalty. 3-y-o Archie Perkins chases a hat-trick and has landed the inside stall, so is second choice, though Stubytuesday could easily revive having dipped below his last successful mark.

TIMEFORM VIEW:

The hint should be taken if the market speaks in favour of likely-looking newcomer CHARLES KINGSLEY. Indeed, he's been found a very winnable race in which to kick-start his career. Thawry is clearly effective on a slow surface judged on his efforts in France, but he's hardly progressive and Athary, who showed ability on debut at Windsor, is feared most.

| TIMEFORM VIEW: VENTURA CREST failed to fire last time and is now 0-15, but he was runner-up over C&D on penultimate start and also hit the crossbar under tresting conditions at Wetherby during the spring. The 3-y-o is worth siding with, though Broughtons Story and recent Carlisle winner Warrior's Spirit are not passed over lightly and Whatwouldyouknow will also be a threat if handling conditions. | | | | | | |
