ATR VERDICT: ROBIN WEATHERS shaped with plenty of encouragement on his first start for Eve Johnson Houghton at Nottingham and there is every chance he has improvement to come with not having many miles on the clock. Arctic Sea was a winner over C&D last time and warrants respect, along with Agar's Plough, second beaten a neck at Chelmsford last month. Collate makes some appeal on stable debut for Amy Murphy and having had a wind operation since last running.

ATR VERDICT: LIVING LEGEND looks likely to improve from his debut fifth at Bath, where he was unlucky not to finish closer having stumbled over a furlong out. Despite the quick turnaround, the booking of Silvestre De Sousa has to be noted and there could well be a change to front-running tactics with that experience under his belt. Barsa Kelmes is an interesting newcomer for Michael Attwater being a half-brother to the useful Al Jellaby, while Debbonair looks capable of building on his Goodwood fourth.

ATR VERDICT: SAM COOKE showed considerable promise on his debut at Kempton when chasing home a rival who already had race experience in Artois. He is a half-brother to Group 2 placed Room Key and should have no issue picking up a contest of this nature. First-time blinkers could see Nina Petrovna find some improvement having disappointed at Epsom when last seen, while Hummdinger can benefit from stepping up a furlong.

Long Handicap: Astrofire 7 - 13

ATR VERDICT: Ian Williams' SWORDBILL has racked up a quickfire hat-trick in staying contests on the all-weather and, despite having to shoulder a 12lb penalty, he appears the one to beat following another comfortable win at Chelmsford over the weekend. General Zoff chased the selection home at Kempton last week and is interesting off the same mark with cheekpieces now tried, while Moans Cross is a solid stayer worthy of respect.

ATR VERDICT: The 250,000gns Dark Angel gelding WELSH LORD was eased down when notching up a three-length victory on his seasonal reappearance earlier this month and the lightly-raced Godolphin charge should be more than capable of another bold showing having thrived for the step up to this trip at Chelmsford. Pontefract winner Hareeq was somewhat disappointing on soft ground at Carlisle but is still of interest going up in trip and running on the all-weather for the first time, while Dono Di Dio and My Heart have both hit the frame of late and are others to note.

ATR VERDICT: It might pay to side with BAYSTON HILL, who had a subsequent winner three-parts of a length behind when runner-up over this trip at Leicester last time and he is also a dual Lingfield winner. Spanish History has gone unpunished for his latest third-placed finish at Bath and he is likely to be in the mix again, while Silvestre De Sousa is an interesting jockey booking on the unexposed Staunch.

ATR VERDICT: KHAFOOQ has improved with each start in novice stakes company and now starts handicap life off a fair mark of 70. He shades the verdict ahead of another handicap debutant in Parliament House, who wasn't beaten far at Hamilton last time and is rated 5lb lower, while Four Wheel Drive has plenty of experience on his side and has yet to run a bad race.

ATR VERDICT: MIDNIGHT GUEST won in fine style over C&D last time and a 7lb rise might not be enough to anchor her if she can reproduce that level of performance. Staffa also boasts winning track-and-trip form and has been hammering on the door recently. She warrants respect along with Impart, who has struck the crossbar on his last couple of appearances.
