ATR VERDICT: Bumper winner FULL BORE made a smooth transition to hurdles when successful at Bangor last month and should be capable of another confidence boosting run here. Fontwell winner Weightfordave brings a wealth of experience to the table and must be considered with the Skelton team still firing in the winners, while Nylon Speed scored on his stable debut when running on the all-weather and clearly benefitted from a wind operation before that Kempton run last month.

Top Tip: FULL BORE (2)

ATR VERDICT: LAUGHING LUIS has impressed when landing two bumpers in easy style this summer and Nicky Henderson's youngster holds leading claims as he looks to transfer that form to hurdles on his first timber appearance. Totterdown routed the opposition at Hereford in the spring and would have made the podium on his latest start at Towcester if not falling at the last. Global Anchor showed promise when third at Uttoxeter, while Richard Johnson keeps faith with Tom Lacey's He's A Goer, who could be a live outsider.

Top Tip: LAUGHING LUIS (5)

ATR VERDICT: PEPPAY LE PUGH is yet another to thrive since joining Dan Skelton's string this summer, unbeaten in two starts for the Alcester handler, and despite a 15lb hike from the assessor for his Sedgefield triumph earlier this month, he rates as the one to beat once again in search of a hat-trick. All Is Good is interesting following a summer break and his most recent efforts offer optimism, while Cap Du Nord has been a bit hit and miss since scoring at Sandown in December, but it is interesting that Richard Johnson is booked in the saddle for the five-year-old's first chase start.

Top Tip: PEPPAY LE PUGH (2)
Watch out for: ALL IS GOOD (3)

ATR VERDICT: FACT OF THE MATTER was touched off by a neck over 3m1f over fences at Cartmel but is taken to gain compensation now competing off a 5lb lower hurdles perch and fitted with a first-time visor. Silk Run backed up her maiden hurdle victory at Bangor when landing a 2m7f handicap at the same venue and will be hoping this step up in trip can help her shake off a 6lb rise. Stratford second Dreamsoftheatre looks best of the rest.

ATR VERDICT: Pickamix held on for dear life to score after his rider dropped his whip and he idled at Newton Abbot in July. He may be vulnerable off 5lb higher now returning from a short break, so preference is for LOFGREN, who appeared to win a shade cosily over the extended 3m1f at Cartmel last month and may be able to defy a 6lb rise. Ballycross is only 3lb higher than when striking at Ffos Las in the spring and is another to bear in mind.

Top Tip: LOFGREN (4)

Watch out for: PICKAMIX (3)

ATR VERDICT: DORY bolted up by 11 lengths in a 2m4f maiden hurdle at Uttoxeter in July and is expected to give a good account if running to a similar level of form now going handicapping. Massini's Dream has been knocking hard on the door in maiden events and wouldn't be winning out of turn, while Kristal Hart could feasibly follow up her recent Stratford victory following a 4lb rise in the ratings.

ATR VERDICT: FILEMON returned to form when third over the extended 2m6f at Stratford last time and is expected to go well off an unchanged mark now cutting back in trip. Turban made all to win over the extended 2m3f at Fontwell two starts ago but he was readily held over 2m5f at the same venue when unable to dominate latest and needs to bounce back. A bigger danger may be Heurtevent, who steps up from 2m after striking off 5lb lower at Worcester.

Top Tip: FILEMON (1)

Watch out for: HEURTEVENT (9)
