ATR VERDICT: Joseph O'Brien holds a strong hand here saddling three with chances and his BALLYBROWNEY JACK has the chance to build on his Sligo second, when beaten less than a length, now wearing cheekpieces and tackling a shorter trip. Davy Russell is an interesting booking on Border Control, who gained a useful education at Listowel and is another who can benefit now dropped back in distance, while it will be interesting to see what Navan hurdle winner Famous Day can bring to the table on her first fences outing. Gavin Cromwell's youngster Moonball and Gordon Elliott's Touch Base are others to consider.

Top Tip: BALLYBROWNEY JACK (3)
Watch out for: BORDER CONTROL (5)
