| TIMEFORM VIEW: ANGEL ALEXANDER ran to a high level first-time out when second to a useful sort at Haydock 2 weeks ago, finishing clear of the rest, and can go one better with improvement on the cards. Skeetah and Exalted Angel both went close on their debut and are feared most.    |                                                                                     |       |                                                                 |            |                             |        |
