ATR VERDICT: Lord Duveen was fifth behind two subsequent Grade 1 winners on his hurdles debut last winter and, having only raced twice over timber last term, the Doyen gelding could have more to come this season with his trainer-jockey combination firing on all cylinders at present. Colin Tizzard's string are normally primed for this meeting and any market support for his Jeremy newcomer, Reserve Tank, must be respected, while Baddesley Knight was a useful bumper performer last season and progress is likely. However, preference is for SUPREME LUCKY, who appears the pick of the Dan Skelton duo and landed a bumper here on his first appearance for the yard in February. The stable are not noted for their bumper winners, so it would be no surprise if the six-year-old, who showed some likeable qualities during that appearance, has plenty more to come now hurdling.

Top Tip: SUPREME LUCKY (8)

Watch out for: LORD DUVEEN (3)
