ATR VERDICT: Court Minstrel bids for his third success in the race, having won in 2015 and 12 months ago, but his form has tailed off drastically and he is now rated 11lb lower than last year, while the recent rain won't benefit his chance. Theclockisticking has some smart novice hurdle form to boast which links in with Captain Cattistock, with the pair both reaching a decent level at Cheltenham in April behind Diese Des Bieffes, and he is likely to come on for his first run of the season at Market Rasen. Captain Cattistock remains open to further improvement but it is possible he will need his first outing since April. A chance, however, is taken with SNEAKY FEELING, who proved very disappointing in two starts early last season, but it was well documented that the Philip Hobbs yard struggled with a virus so he remains of interest with a clean slate to start this campaign. Azzerti, Dans Le Vent, and Le Patriote are others all worthy of note.

Top Tip: SNEAKY FEELING (12)
Watch out for: THECLOCKISTICKING (6)
