ATR VERDICT: Theglasgowwarrior has been running well all season and could run a big race at a fair price, while Vis A Vis has been a market mover throughout the week and the addition to the saddle of Cesarewitch specialist Silvestre De Sousa is worth noting. Willie Mullins runs seven and Stratum, Limini and Low Sun are all worthy of respect, but this can go the way of JUST IN TIME, who has won three of his last four for Alan King. His victory at Doncaster last time in the Mallard was mightily impressive, and he looks likely to get his preferred strong pace in this cavalry charge. St Leger third Southern France looks to be the class horse in the race, but only two three-year-olds have won this in the last 25 years, while Cleonte has a nice profile but would have preferred some rain to be more competitive.

Top Tip: JUST IN TIME (12)
