ATR VERDICT: A return to seven furlongs saw BARRISTAN THE BOLD back to his very best, when drawing clear to score at Chester last time, and the mount of Patrick Pilley is of serious interest once again. Shallow Hal got off the mark on heavy ground last time and is respected, although underfoot conditions will be much quicker this time around. A return to a sounder surface could be in the favour of the lightly-raced Happy Power, who was a beaten favourite at Hamilton last month. Indian Viceroy's hat-trick bid ended in defeat when up to 1m at Doncaster and the drop in trip can help, with Baronial Pride the pick of the Richard Fahey pair.

Top Tip: BARRISTAN THE BOLD (1)

Watch out for: HAPPY POWER (5)
