ATR VERDICT: IL PARADISO confirmed his debut promise by finishing second in a competitive novice event at Newmarket last time out. A reproduction of that effort today should be good enough to win this contest and he is also proven on heavy ground. Blenheim Palace, who is a full-brother to Churchill and Clemmie, has improved with every start to date and he may have more to offer this afternoon. Loughmore is entitled to progress having made his debut a couple of weeks ago. Aidan O'Brien unleashes some extremely well-bred newcomers in this race and that includes Desert Island, who is a half-brother to September, while Gathering Storm is a full-brother to Alice Springs. Gentile Bellini cost 2,000,000gns as a yearling and is out of the 1000 Guineas winner Sky Lantern, while Turnberry Isle is out of a Cheveley Park winner. Any market support for any of these would have to be noted.
