ATR VERDICT: Ruth Jefferson's pair of mares Card Game and Sweet Holly are both course winners and it would be no shock to see them get involved, while Dentley De Mee's second in Grade 3 company at Sandown in the spring, off 4lb lower than today's rating, is one of the better pieces of form on offer. Black Mischief landed a Kempton handicap on his latest outing in April and has plenty of ability, which wasn't often seen last season when the stable was a little hit and miss. However, the combination of a wind operation and being gelded in the summer could help SOLO SAXOPHONE travel much more smoothly through his races, and the Fred Winter sixth can play a leading role here having been dropped 4lb by the assessor.

Top Tip: SOLO SAXOPHONE (5)

Watch out for: BLACK MISCHIEF (2)
